Please verify your invoice or order confirmation immediately upon receipt to ensure the correct merchandise is dispatched. For custom size Panels and Bass Traps, please verify measurements and product shape. Bass Traps not marked as corners will be produced with standard rectangular shape. For corner bass traps and custom panels please verify that all width, height and thickness measurements are clearly marked as CORNER traps and correspond to your needs. Customer is responsible for shipping charges on any returns or exchanges on correctly dispatched merchandise (merchandise matching what is listed on your invoice). All sales for custom orders are final and non-exchangeable.

Lead-time estimates are from payment date to ship date:

- Orders for stock and DIY products such as soundproofing materials, fabric, acoustic insulation, etc: 4-7 business days.
- Standard made to order (MTO) products such as acoustic panels and bass traps: 7-14 business days.
- Larger and custom orders and Acoustic ART: 14 to 18 business days.

If you are a contractor or dealer working with a set deadline, please give us a call during business hours and we might be able to accomodate you.

We understand that you, or your company, may have deadlines to meet, and may need to schedule installers for products you plan on ordering from us. However, we are a manufacturer of products that are built-to-order, and our lead times may vary, and are subject to change without notice. We highly advise against scheduling any associated labor, until your shipment has been delivered. Freight shipments will require an appointment to be set, and delivery time may vary according to your location. Lead times, are estimates based on working days and order size and volume, and are provided as a courtesy. Lead times, provided either written or verbally, are not intended as a contractual obligation in any way, and Acoustimac LLC assumes no responsibility for any liabilities caused by delays in production or delivery, and offers no warranty of any kind on lead times and delivery dates.

Thanks again for choosing Acoustimac!
